

What's New At Runtal?

Runtal is pleased to announce that Artexture +, Runtal's New York City architectural representative, has recently opened an office and showroom in midtown Manhattan at 321 W. 44th, Suite 803.

The showroom includes Artexture's many architectural product lines, and features a wide array of Runtal radiators and towel warmer radiators. Also included are working examples the Steamview and Charleston Pro steam radiator models from the Steam Radiators Co. division.

Please contact Sarah Reinus, Joe Del Brocco, or Warren Cirulnick at 212-265-8400 for more information, or to schedule a visit to the showroom and offices.
